

Partial Coordination Services

If you're on a budget but need more help than our Day of Coordination package, we now offer our Partial Planning Package. Many brides spend countless, valuable hours searching through magazines, websites and calling hundreds of vendors, take advantage of our expertise by letting us handle that for you. After an initial consultation we'll discuss and evaluate your planning needs, style and budget and come up with a customized package that includes reputable vendors who are the right fit for you. Of course we stay on board with you throughout the entire planning process to ensure that you don't forget a thing.

Included in the Partial Coordination Package:

- * Four meetings planning sessions to stay on task and make sure that all plans are going accordingly
- * Customized budget assistance
- * Vendor referrals customized to meet your needs and personality
- * Unlimited email and phone support
- * Etiquette and wedding protocol advice
- * Everything included in our Day of Coordination package
